

Is Maha Govt Waiting for Auspicious Day to Frame Policy on Clean, Hygienic Toilets in Schools? HC Asks

Mumbai :The Bombay High Court on Monday said the condition of toilets in schools across Maharashtra was very bad, and asked the state government if it was powerless or waiting for some auspicious day to frame a policy on the issue.

also pointed out the issue of unclean and unhygienic washrooms and toilets for girls in government aided schools. Pursuant to orders from the court in July this year, the Maharashtra District Legal Services Authority (MDLSA) carried out a survey of schools in Mumbai city, suburbs and neighbouring districts and a report was submitted to the court on Monday.

dards. After perusing the report, the HC said the condition of toilets in schools was very bad. "And the report is about schools in urban areas like Mumbai suburbs. If this is the situation in urban areas, just imagine the situation in rural areas. What are the state government's education officers doing? Is it not the duty of your (government) officers to carry out periodic checks?" Justice Varale sought to know. The court sought to know why the state government was not framing a policy on the issue.

using harsh words and asked if the education officers were stopped from carrying out periodic checks in schools. Additional government pleader BP Samant told the court that the government was raising awareness among students, parents and school management on the issue. The court then asked what about duties of the government. "Look at the realities of life. Is this the approach that the state government should adopt? This is a very sorry state of affairs. This pains us," Justice

Varale said. The bench directed the petitioners and the state government to peruse the report and posted the matter for further hearing after four weeks.

Baramati Constituency Part of BJP's 'Maharashtra Mission': Fadnavis

Mumbai: Maharashtra Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis on Tuesday said the Baramati constituency, the pocket borough of NCP president Sharad Pawar, falls under the Bharatiya Janata Party's the people. "There is no need to make it (displaying of photos) mandatory as I feel Mahatma Jyotiba Phule and Savitribai Phule live in the hearts of the people. However, as government offices run on rules such orders are issued many times. I feel Mahatma Jyotiba Phule and Savitribai Phule command immense respect in the country," he said.

bai civic polls together and the BJP separately, Fadnavis said such talk is like kite flying. "The BJP and the original Shiv Sena led by Eknath Shinde will fight the Mumbai civic polls together and will hoist the saffron flag atop the Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC)," he added.

The BJP has launched a programme to reach out to every voter in the 16 Lok Sabha constituencies, including Baramati, in Maharashtra to expand its base and win them in the next elections, Bawankule had said.
